

GROWTH BY DESIGN™

Imagine your vision for robust, vibrant business growth has been fulfilled. What did it take to leverage the opportunities and meet the challenges? Who did you become – individually and together – to get here?

Growth By Design™ helps you fulfill that vision by developing your leadership culture.

Leadership culture generates the kinds of growth you are likely to benefit from and value most. It's a core driver for business performance and competitive advantage as well as for interpersonal resonance, resilience and satisfaction. Your leadership culture is how leadership – as a way of being – is expressed, experienced and evolved by everyone together. It keeps you effective and relevant in today's diverse and rapidly changing business environment. Effectively shaping organizational culture requires attention to 1) guiding principles, values, and strategy, 2) daily habits of behavior and practice, and 3) systemic reinforcement. Deliberately growing your leadership culture is one of your most valuable long-term plays.

GROWTH BY DESIGN™ - THE BIGGER PICTURE

Talented people throughout your organization are under pressure to make decisions, innovate, coordinate action and generate results in the face of increasing volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and adversity. Who are you counting on to drive sustainable, profitable, life-affirming change? As you grow, what do you need to replicate, add or let go of to stay agile, adaptive and resourceful?

Growth By Design™ catalyzes meaningful, durable change by integrating individual, collective and systemic elements. Your core team sets the example and standard by what they embody individually and together. When mastering the art and practice of leadership is held as a strategic priority and business imperative, you co-create a rich, inspiring culture where your values, beliefs, ethics and contributions align with results. You grow together by challenging your culture, appealing to its deeper values, its “better self.”

OPTIONS FOR GETTING STARTED

Our work together is designed to catalyze transformation. People eventually operate from a “new normal,” even under pressure. Growth By Design™ helps you “retool on the run” from two critical perspectives:

- Leveraging ways your leaders already enable your organization to evolve and change by design
- Discovering what impedes or stops your healthy growth and building capacity for needed shifts.

Depending on your needs and desired outcomes, we combine individual coaching, group coaching and facilitated processes for strategic engagement, systemic inquiry and learning. Whatever you choose, it will include an emphasis on applied neuroscience, language as action, and embodied learning and practice.

LEADER EFFECTIVENESS – Individual coaching for leadership & professional development

Coaching programs are designed to develop more effective, reflective, competency-based leadership. Taking a developmental lens to leadership, you remove bottlenecks and system constriction while becoming more adaptive addressing complex issues. Individuals gain awareness and new choices to:

- Augment individual technical excellence with leadership competencies and practices essential for high-performing teams and personal wellbeing
- Appreciate how leadership practices impact the leadership culture you experience and co-create
- Cultivate a next level of leadership mastery, respectful of individual choice and diversity.

May include The Leadership Circle Profile (360° leadership assessment) and others, such as C-IQ Catalyst, MBTI, FIRO-B, CVI, etc.

COLLABORATIVE EFFECTIVENESS – Group coaching, meeting & offsite design & facilitation

A “group” can be two or more people. We focus on issues, dynamics and resources within the group’s control, plus realistic opportunities to influence the larger organization. Possible focus areas include:

- Re-visioning and re-aligning to fulfill a strategic vision and related leadership promises
- Improved communication and constructive approaches to conflict
- Collaborating under pressure while building and restoring trust

May include The Leadership Circle – Culture Survey.

ECOSYSTEM GROWTH – Facilitated processes for strategic engagement, systemic inquiry & learning

Facilitating engagement to cultivate and leverage the “wisdom of the group.” Using systemic inquiry, tools and methodologies, individuals and teams become more strategic, agile and co-creative.

May include use of WindTunneling.
